

Are you prepared to take responsibility for the whole?

Do you have a world-class implementivity?

We work with companies and people whose ambition is to break new ground, grow and create something for the future. It is crucial that you share this passion with us!

You

- are committed and driven by curiosity and goals
- hold a high pace and build long-term relationships with customers
 - are courageous, confident and possess a "settler mentality"
- have a strong business sense and experience in creating, pushing and developing customers to make them and us successful
- have experience from being a Challenger, you know what it means to work in a growth company
- desire to share your knowledge and experience so that others get better, stronger and more successful

Do you want to be a Challenger?

Become a consultant at TXP!